Man Pleads to Sexually Assaulting Three Women

A 24-year man pleaded no contest today to kidnap, rape and sexual assault involving three women in 2012, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Allen Phillip Crews will be sentenced to 50 years in state prison and ordered to register as a sex offender for the rest of his life when he returns to court March 21 for sentencing before Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Richard Kemalyan.

Deputy District Attorney Jane Creighton with the Sex Crimes Division prosecuted the case.

Creighton said Crews pleaded to attacking two women near 85th Street and Western Avenue on June 15, 2012. He beat up a 35-year-old woman and knocked her teeth out. On the same day, he forced a 41-year-old woman into an alley using a fake gun and raped her, Creighton said. The attacks occurred about an hour apart.

Three days later, he raped and sexually assaulted a 40-year-old woman at a bus stop near Manchester and Normandie avenues. Crews was arrested after an LAPD officer saw an injured and unconscious woman on a bus bench and spotted a man fleeing the scene.

Los Angeles Police Department investigated the case.

Crews pleaded no contest to one count each of sexual penetration by a foreign object, assault with intent to commit rape and kidnapping. He pleaded to two counts each of assault by means likely to produce great bodily injury and forcible rape.
